2ND CROSSING THE PALAEONTOLOGICAL – ECOLOGICAL GAP

6th – 9th September 2021 | Online | Museum für Naturkunde, Berlin

Plenary Speakers

Lee Hsiang Liow, Associate Professor, University of Oslo, Norway

Jenny McGuire, Assistant Professor, Georgia Tech, USA

Erin Saupe, Associate Professor, University of Oxford, UK

Online Meeting

Due to the current COVID-19 restrictions, the 2nd CPEG meeting is rescheduled to September 6-9th 2021 and will be held online. The meeting will be three and a half days long, without parallel sessions. We will host Oral Presentations, Lightning Talks, and five Plenary Speakers. Besides giving a platform to scientists and work that aims to cross the gap between modern and ancient worlds, the aim is to cover all major organism groups, ecological levels, and process foci. Prizes will be available for best student presentations.

Abstract submission and registration are open!

Submission deadline is June 15th 2021

Host Institution

This event is hosted by the Museum für Naturkunde - Leibniz Institute for Evolution and Biodiversity Science, Berlin, an integrated research museum within the Leibniz Association. It is one of the most important research institutions worldwide in the areas of biological and geological evolution and biodiversity. We encourage you to visit in the future or join us on a virtual tour of the museum at #fürNatur digital.

Plenary Speakers

Jens-Christian Svenning, Professor, Aarhus University

Indrė Žliobaitė, Assistant Professor, University of Helsinki, Finland

Logo

The CPEG logo depicts a Coelacanth, being an iconic "living fossil", that is half fossil, half living. The Coelacanth provides a metaphorical link between ecologies of the present and the distant past. The logo was designed for the previous meeting by University of Leeds postgraduate researcher Jed Atkinson.

Code of Conduct

We ask delegates to follow some online meeting guidelines to ensure that everyone who attends the online event feels welcome, safe, and comfortable. This includes:

•Treating everyone equally, with respect and dignity at all times
•Maintaining a professional and friendly but non-personal, non-sexual dialogue at all times with all participants
•Questions and discussions should be respectful and constructive and focus on ideas rather than individuals.
•Comments or behaviors that may reasonably be assumed to have the effect of creating, contributing to, or maintaining an environment that is hostile toward or damaging to a person or group are prohibited, no matter whether they are made directly online or indirectly (e.g., via social media).
